

OBITUARY

By Kurma Murrain

The Collins' marriage died at age 3 on July 31st, 2009

Visitations will occur till October 15th, 2010

Funeral at lawyer's office some day in October 2011.

One of the most popular interracial marriages in NC has died at a very young age.

After being in the IC unit for two years, the couple has decided to unplug the cord.

His stoic figure will always be remembered amongst friends

His blond hair, green eyes, perfect teeth and height will no longer be associated with his counterpart.

His Harley Davidson paraphernalia will depart with him leaving nothing but a rumbled noise dimmed with the distance.

She claims: Her life back, the dog, and a poetry book she acquired before the wedlock.

Viewings will be celebrated at her apartment

Shoes are optional

Wine and laughter are mandatory.

It has been decided that his funeral will be closed-casket

Hers will be open to anybody who wants to dance to rhythms of cumbia skirts and candle lights to incinerate the past.

Do not send condolences.

Only flowers and sincere hugs are accepted.

No R.S.V.P. necessary.